CAA WILL BE IMPLEMENTED BEFORE LS POLLS: SHIVRAJ CHOUHAN

KOLKATA

Senior BJP leader Shivraj Singh Chouhan expressed confidence on Tuesday that the Citizenship Amendment Act (CAA) would be implemented before the forthcoming Lok Sabha elections.

Speaking to PTI, the former Madhya Pradesh Chief Minister emphasised that the CAA aimed at granting citizenship rather than revoking it, contrary to claims by some opposition parties.

"I am confident that CAA will be implemented before the Lok Sabha polls. This act is very much needed. It has been clarified time and again that this law is not against anyone but about giving citizenship to those brothers and sisters of the neighbouring countries who fled the countries for religious persecution", Chouhan said. His assertion comes amidst earlier reports this month suggesting that the rules for the legislation would be notified "much before" the announcement of the Lok Sabha elections.

CHOUHAN, WHO has been assigned to oversee the organisation of the Howrah cluster - two Lok Sabha seats from the district, in West Bengal, exuded confidence in achieving the target of 35 Lok Sabha seats from the state menting the controversial CAA served as a major electoral platform for the BJP in the previous Lok Sabha and Assembly polls in West Bengal. Party leaders believe it played a pivotal role in the BJP's rise in the state.

Chouhan, who has been assigned to oversee the organisation of the Howrah cluster - two Lok Sabha seats from the district, in West Bengal, exuded confidence in achieving the target of 35 Lok Sabha seats from the state.

"In Bengal, the rule of cut, commission and corruption is going on and the people of the state are fed up with the misrule of the TMC. Last time from two seats we won 18 seats, this time we are confident of winning 35 plus seats from the state", he told PTI here.

In the 2019 elections, TMC secured 22 seats, Congress won two, and the BJP bagged 18 seats in the state.

Hitting out at the state government over the recent unrest at Sandeshkhali, Chouhan said the "revelations at Sandeshkhali are spine chilling. "The revelations at Sandeshkhali are spine-chilling. The state government allowed such things to happen", he said.

Protests persisted in Sandeshkhali for the sixth consecutive day, with a significant number of women taking to the streets, demanding the arrest of TMC leader Sheikh Shajahan and his alleged "gang."

The accusations include forcefully capturing land and sexually harassing women. Chouhan also criticised Congress leader Rahul Gandhi over Congress' ongoing 'Bharat Jodo Nyay Yatra' and wondered why Congress leaders were silent on the issue.
